Joining the Old Guard is easy. Contribution is only $100 per year. Your gift goes toward strengthening the Bonds among alumni, and enriching both the alumni and undergraduate Delta Lambda experience. Some alumni have even chosen to give as much as $1,000. Thank you, Old Guard Chairman Jack McMullen '64 for paying three years ahead! jackmcfsu@aol.com

Thank you to Lee Anderson '84 for his $300 gift. Lee says, "No problem; it is my pleasure. It has been a while since I have been back to FSU, but I am a Pike for Life. lopez308@bellsouth.net

Thank you to Jeff Moore '81, a regular at our Monthly Luncheons, for his $100 renewal. jeffkathymoore@bellsouth.net

"Delta Lambda Brothers, I am honored to serve as Chairman of the Old Guard, Delta Lambda's voluntary annual fund. Many alumni continue to be generous benefactors. We think it appropriate for "The Old Guard" to pay the expenditures associated with Brother Charlie Barnes' recognition celebration.

Likewise, we want to be able to fund a portion of the costs of renovating the Keen Conference Room in our Pike/Sembler house with new chairs, conference table, and associated items.

The Old Guard is funded by the $100 per year support of our alumni.

Some give more, as they deem desirable. I have just paid $300 for years 2023, 2024 & 2025. ALL financial support received for The Old Guard funds are appropriately used "in the best interests of our Delta Lambda chapter." Payments, at your discretion, can made either by check or credit card.

Thank you for your loyalty and Brotherly consideration.
In the Bonds,
Jack McMullen '64

Delta Lambda Back-to-School Reunion

May 12-16, 2022

Joe Feheley '81, Legacy Dad, past Chapter Advisor, Former Air Force Fighter Pilot.

If you desire to participate in the upcoming DELTA LAMBDA BACK-TO-SCHOOL REUNION contact Joe directly, right away. Joe Feheley / 305-776-3221 / jfeheley@comcast.net

Back-to-School Reunion at the Pike House, May 12-16, 2022.

"This is your opportunity to spend up to four days in your Delta Lambda fraternity house. After the semester ends, rooms in the Pike house will be open for our use. The goal is to foster Delta Lambda Brotherhood while having a great time. Undergrads remaining in the house will get quality time with alumni Brothers in every career imaginable, spend quality time networking with each other.

"The plan is to develop an excel spreadsheet of room availability similar to Airbnb, and to allocate rooms based on number of days each alumnus will participate.

Your Cost:

"Each participating alum will make a donation to the house of approximately $125 per day/per room. The bulk of the money will help the undergrad with the monthly cost of their May rent. The remaining portion will go to the house, to use to better the house.

Logistics:

"Each alumnus will have their own sheets and mattress protector for obvious reasons. We will inspect each room in the days before the event to ensure all rooms are clean, fit, and up to standards. If you need help obtaining items, let me know.

Events:

"This is going to be more fun than you can imagine. We will have a golf day, an FSU baseball game day, and we will have a day at Lake Talquin. Other events will be planned once we see the actual numbers.

"Each day, we will have planned meal outings for alumni; alumni will pay for any undergrads who come eat with us. We will have a stickball championship, and other events at the house that further Brotherhood, and allow you to relive your glory days. I'm hoping we can have a Special Initiation so we can re-live and embrace our Ritual and other traditions.

"Please respond directly to me saying that you would like to participate in this historical event.

Several of Delta Lambda's most prominent 2022 campus leaders posed for this year's edition of Pikes Illustrated, edited by Riley Martin '20.

Pike Sires & Sons at Initiation: Craig Mateer '86 and his son Charles Merritt '16 exchange congratulations with Chandler Stutler '16 and his dad Denver Stutler '82 (UCF). Denver Stutler is Florida's former Secretary of Transportation.
