Join the Old Guard of Delta Lambda!

The Old Guard is Delta Lambda's alumni Annual Fund. January brought expressions of loyalty and generosity from many Delta Lambda alumni. Your contribution helps the Chapter maintain its competitive standing at the top of Florida State's fraternity system.

We're extremely grateful to these Brothers who joined or renewed their Old Guard commitments since our last Newsletter was published in January. In fact, five of these contributions came within 48 hours of publication.

They include J.L. Milton '62; Joe Beasley '83; Todd Trimmer '69; Bart Ziegler '83; Jim Floyd '76; Joe Liguori '81, Jim Finch '81 and Scottie Howell '06.

Several more gifts should be noted. Former Chapter Advisor Joe Feheley '81 joined the Sembler Society ($1,000 or more). John Stoner '64 renewed his membership for two years, as well as that of his brother Bob '64 (Chapter Eternal). And, as an expression of National's appreciation for the good work of Dela Lambda, Pi Kappa Alpha CEO Justin Buck '96 (Southeast Missouri) in Memphis sent a check to join the Old Guard!

Joining the Old Guard is easy. Contribution is only $100 per year. Your gift goes toward strengthening the Bonds among alumni, and enriching both the alumni and undergraduate Delta Lambda experience. Some alumni have even chosen to give as much as $1,000. A current list of the Old Guard Members appears at the end of this newsletter.

Our next Alumni Advisors/Undergraduate Leadership Luncheon is Wednesday, March 3rd at the University Center Club. Please come and enjoy the fellowship and hear about Delta Lambda's latest goals and achievements. Our Chapter is fortunate to benefit from the attentions of strong undergraduate leaders and many caring alumni.

Proud of This Executive Committee Who Led Delta Lambda Through 2020

It was an awful year in so many ways. Already severe restrictions imposed under the “New Normal” were increased ten-fold by the devastating spread of Covid that closed the campus and limited in-person classes and events. These men above led the Chapter under the most challenging circumstances. Because of them, Delta Lambda not only survived, but prospered. These men kept Pike on top.

Front: Max Roix '18 Internal Vice President; Jacob Middleton '18 President; Jake Iacovella '18 External Vice President.

Center: Garrett Sargeant '17 Treasurer; Cory Kutcha '17 Member at Large; Tyler Gilroy '18 Pledge Educator; Luke Vari '18 Rush Chairman.

From top left: Bill Galvano '17 Secretary, Kobie Lawson '18 House Manager, Kyle McLaren '18 Excellence officer, Austin Guarino '18 Sergeant at Arms, Jack Williams '18 Risk Manager.

As we begin 2021, our relationship with the University Administration is solid and productive, thanks to these Officers and to Chapter Adviser John Peacock '01.

Pike is still the largest fraternity at FSU, just as we have been for 20 years. Jonathan Levin is Delta Lambda's seventh Student Body President in 18 years. Pike Brothers dominate the leadership of Student Seminole Boosters, and more varsity athletes join Pike than all the other fraternities combined.

New SMC Luke Vari '18 and new Rush Chairman James Bencivenga '20 have already overseen the first rush of 2021. Our new 2021 Executive Leaders face daunting challenges, but Delta Lambda's leadership core remains solid and committed.

Delta Lambda Lore & Legend: "Who the Hell is Scott Warren?"

One of the great tales of Delta Lambda lore – and co-incidentally one of the great Seminole football stories – centers on what transpired during the 1977 Tangerine Bowl.

Back then, the Red Raiders of Texas Tech were on a roll, and much better known, nationally, than Florida State. In fact, Florida State was barely known at all. Some of the Texas Tech players were vocal in their disappointment when told they would face FSU in the Tangerine Bowl. When interviewed by a Lubbock TV station, senior quarterback Rodney Allison sarcastically demanded to know “Who’s Florida State?”

Then, before horrified football staffers could stop him, the quarterback grabbed a Seminole football game program from the reporter and started going down the list of our players, berating them.

“Look here,” Allison said, picking out a name at random. “Scott Warren, sophomore defensive end. Who the hell is Scott Warren?”

All of this really happened, and our local Channel 6 made sure tape of it hit the air in Tallahassee.

To ensure that Rodney Allison would know who he was, Scott Warren decided to apply colored war paint to his face.

Following the 40-17 destruction of Texas Tech, the Mizlou TV Network awarded Defensive Player of the Game honors to Warren for his brilliant play, and, in particular, for his dogged pursuit of quarterback Rodney Allison.

Beyond his on-field play, he was also well known on the Florida State campus as a member of Pi Kappa Alpha. He was very active on the campus intramural fields, helping the Pikes win championships in several sports.

Individually, Warren competed for the Pikes track team, winning the All-Campus shotput and discus championships four consecutive years. He also played basketball, softball, and volleyball for the house, in addition to winning the heavyweight classification in wrestling each year, upholding the long tradition of Pikes dominating that division going back to the multi-year reigns of Bob Anderson '72 and Billy McPhillips '74 (and subsequently taken up by David Ponder '80!).

Considering his varsity football, pre-med academic schedule and church commitments, perhaps Scott's more important contribution to the chapter was taking an active role in Rush, and not just with other ball players.

Former Rush Chairman Griff Siegel '78 writes, "At Rush parties, Scott always handled the role of chapter showpiece with charisma and grace; shaking hands and chatting politely with rushees, often asking, quite matter-of-factly 'So, how do you like MY fraternity?' (I always loved that line!)"

Siegel goes on to share how Scott invited him use his apartment at Coble Terrace as a base of operations for meeting, getting to know and rushing athletes. "More than a few times young players would walk in, sit on the couch and curiously peruse one of the Pikeboys that were always on his coffee table. When they asked what the magazines were for, as they inevitably would, he'd always respond the same way: 'That's MY fraternity. You should check it out.' Talk about establishing credibility among the ranks!"

"On a few occasions, our All-American team captain would escort a wide-eyed underclassman to a Rush party at the House and personally deliver them to John Leavitt '77 or me. Needless to say, the 'bid acceptance percentage' on Scott's personal deliveries was close to 100%."

Just as he did for the Seminoles football team, Scott led by example in the Chapter, continually adding to the legend and lore of Delta Lambda!

"WHY I AM PROVIDING FOR THE LEGENDS OF DELTA LAMBDA IN MY WILL"

Joe with wife Olga

Premier F16 fighter jock

Joe with son Sean '14

Air Force Lt. Col. Joe "Hooter" Feholey '81 is a decorated American war hero and one of the nation's premier F-16 fighter pilots. Joe served Delta Lambda as Chapter Advisor for a term while he earned an MBA from FSU. Joe's son Sean was initiated in 2014.

Joe writes, "I am a proud member of the Old Guard (Sembler Society), but I want to do more to ensure that our chapter house always remains in the hands of our alumni".

Joe's mother passed on the final day of 2020. He and his family established a $250,000 Professorship in the MBA program in her memory. Joe says, "We took a look around to see what things shaped my life and FSU was a central focal point, not only in education but more importantly with the people I've surrounded myself with for life. The MBA professorship is a thank you for the Business School, and there needs to be something for Delta Lambda." He went on to say, "My friends and Brothers from those days mean the world to me, and I want to ensure that their sons, and their grandsons, can enjoy the same experience that has made Delta Lambda the best fraternity in the country."

He further states, "I feel our alumni are what make the Pikes great. The kids will always be kids, and these days that's enough to end a fraternity's existence, without guidance and gentle intervention from the alumni. Our alumni need to ensure that the Delta Lambda legacy has all the tools it needs to continue Our Legend.”

Joe is currently flying combat missions in Afghanistan, “sending bad guys to meet their maker...but I’m not thinking the 72 virgins will like the shape they’re in.” Joe will be retiring soon, and after 32 ½ years as a top Air Force fighter pilot, Joe has committed to including a generous gift to The Legends of Delta Lambda in his estate and asks that you consider doing the same. φφκκ Joe

Your estate gift to Delta Lambda will help ensure that our magnificent chapter house remains in Delta Lambda’s hands. Brent Wolfe Sembler ’78 is Chairman of The Legends of Delta Lambda, owner of the fraternity house. When you update your will, this simple wording will be effective:

“I wish to give $_____ to The Legends of Delta Lambda, Inc., or its successor organization, a corporation located in St Petersburg, Florida. Tax I.D. number: 22-3857797.”

If you’d like to further discuss the options of making a will gift to Delta Lambda, either Brent, Andy and/or Joel will welcome your call.

Ad Astra

Donald Eugene Kyle ’77

Donald Eugene Kyle '77, Gina and son Donald

Griff Siegel '78 wrote on January 24: "Brothers Mine, I've learned from Mickey Fernandez '77 that our brother, Don Kyle '77 ("Dukie Moto"), passed away earlier today, apparently from Covid-19. So, please be safe, Brothers. And may God rest the soul of our brother, Don Kyle." øøka

Bill Gregory '77: "Byrd Ison '78 called me this morning and advised that Griff Siegel had notified many that Don "Hawaiian" Kyle had died, which left me thinking of all the time I spent with him. Mickey Fernandez had arranged several get-togethers with Don and me whenever Don would come to Miami – and we were supposed to get together again when this virus was behind us. Don will truly be missed!"

Eddie Allen '79: "We did hear about Don last night, and heard it was Covid and that he was too stubborn to go to the hospital....the man was true to himself all the way to the end! Is there any chance he threw in the towel because of his friendship with Mick, Slappy or Griff....just saying!"

Desmond Harrington '81: "PS: An adieu to Don Kyle... my last two years in America were spent living in Dallas. Kyle always called for us two meet and greet; he loved Mexican food. Fernández..... Muy lindas palabras de Duckie Motto. Un abrazo desde Panamá, Demy."

Bob Windom '75: "Such sad news - just hate hearing this about Brother Donnie! He was the nicest guy, great sense of humor and always had a smile on his face. We emailed about getting together sometime last year, but now that won't happen. Just shows you have to follow thru on your plans because life is too short and then you get news like this. He will be sorely missed but his memory will live on." Phi Phi

Steve Walker '81: "I hope he was reunited with his son."

Bill Raymond '79: "A sweet goodnight to a friend."

Brad Gwinn '78: "This is heartbreaking. Prayers and condolences to his family."

Mark Smith '78: "So sorry; this is so sad. RIP Don."

Alan Innella '77: "Very sorry to hear. Don was my roommate at the old Pike house. Shocking news. May he rest in peace."

Bobby Fedor '81: "I have always been a big fan of Don; a great Brother, great friend—a giant heart. He and his wit will be missed."

Col. Joe Feheley '81: "I am heartbroken to hear this news and Don is in my prayers. Brothers, please be safe and get immunizations until this craziness is over."

Roy McDonald '79: "This is just crushing. We had dinner together just three weeks ago and he was still the good old Duke. Don was just a good guy who always came across tough and uncaring but had a heart the size of Texas."

Kris Kreger '81 agreed: "I remember you telling me the story behind Don becoming Dukie Moto. Great memories. I do remember him as a good brother with a great sense of humor."

Joe Liguori '81: "Don and I spoke several times after his son Donald passed. For as much pain as he was in, he showed a lot of grace. Following on Dookie's passing, I am committed to connecting and re-connecting with the fellas whenever possible. Had a cocktail with Clarke Morris '83 and lunch with Bart Goodson '83 a few weeks ago. Met Craig Chown '81 this morning. Will see Roy McDonald '79, Bill Barie '79 and Cadie Carter '79 next week. Craig and I are getting together in a few weeks for dinner in Tally, will post an invite for the local guys and anyone who might be in town."
ppka

Tim Norris '77: "So sorry to hear about brother Don. Just had lunch with him in 2019, here in Destin and we talked about the old days; RIP."

Frank Hoover '78: "This is terrible! Don was such a character back in college. Griff thanks for warning on Covid as it is needed."

Mickey Work '77 sent a photo of 'Survival of the Fittest Spring Weekend 1977'
"Here's a photo I found from 1977 with Don Kyle and our Brothers – most from our same pledge class."

*Thanks to Mickey Work, Charlie Barnes and Ed Jordan for ID assistance.

Bert Chandler '76: "OMG. I would see Don when I lived in north Georgia as his son and mine went to the same military academy. Always great to see him."

Chuck Cottrell '80: "Damn sorry to hear. Most of us knew how tough Don was on the outside, but I believed him to be a kind, caring gentleman inside. Rest easy Duke."

David Markowski '79: "Brothers, as I have traveled through life, I have never forgotten the required trip up to the third floor of the Pike house to discuss the financial business of the fraternity with our beloved brother Don. Whether it was a discussion about my bill or a request for kegs it was always met with a response filled with the character of a Hawaiian warrior. I seem to recall that we brotherly referred to him as "Pineapple" with a stream of kackle from him to follow. We all knew his brusque defense of the house finances was a deep and meaningful commitment to us brothers. He will be missed."

Bill Gregory '77: "I know we all have some great Don Kyle stories because of the character he was, but David Markowski made me think of one in particular that was vintage Don Kyle! Talk about financial commitment to the Pikes – anyone remember Don tossing the possessions of one of the brothers out on the front lawn for failure to pay dues? Don is already clearly and sorely missed, as there was no one else like him. Rest in peace my friend! Phi Phi KA"

Tim O'Malley '79: "Such sad news. My favorite memory... Chapter meetings on Sundays... every week it was like this: SMC turning to Don, "Now a Report from the Treasurer." Dukey Moto: "Pay your fucking bills!" SMC: "Okay. Next order of business.... He was one of kind. Such a good dude. Rest in peace Dukey, you will be missed." ppka

Ed Barnes '71: "You probably don't need anything more from me but, just to make sure you know, he was the Treasurer that finally got us in good shape with National which allowed us to win the Chapter's first Symthe Award in New Orleans in 1980. Don was at that Convention and is pictured in the group holding the trophy. He was an Edward Cubbon Award winner in 1981."

Mickey Fernandez '77: "You know, Kyle always tried to show a rough and tough image but those of us who knew him well, know he was really a Teddy Bear down deep. He had a great sense of humor and would not take long to give any of us shit about anything. He loved Pikes and was proud of being a Delta Lambda Pike. He was Chapter Advisor for the Georgia Tech Pike House and I am sure embellished tons of yarns about how we did things at Delta Lambda, if I know our buddy!"

"Don was dealt a ton of adversity throughout his life. Physically, he had a horrible biking accident, in which Steve Smith '78 helped get him medical aid as quick as possible, something Don was eternally grateful to Steve for. He had some bad luck in some of his business ventures and finally he suffered through the loss of his only son.

And every time he powered through because he was old school. He wasn't one to feel sorry for himself. He looked forward and was always moving ahead. He would never give up. In fact, the only way this damn disease was able to take him was in his sleep! Because awake he would still be fighting!

"I will miss my good buddy Kyle! I consider myself to have been lucky to have been his friend for 44 plus years. And Steve, I agree with you that every day is a gift and as we age, we learn we can't take anything, and especially anyone, for granted. Now, "Pay your bills!!!" Phi Phi"

M. Fernandez
954-662-3939

Many more heart-felt expressions of regret also were received from Geno Celano '76; Don Lyles; Wade Wilcox '86; Ed Jordan '76; Craig Brakeman '77; Donnie Hedstrom '77; Chris Hansard '81; Mike Long '83; Tom Trotta '81; David Henry '81; Kevin Smith '78; Tracy Schulis '76; Craig Chown '81; Scott Jones '81; Jim McNeill '77; Brett Kublin '80; Jim O'Connor '79 and more.
