Join the Old Guard of Delta Lambda!

Join the Old Guard of Delta Lambda! The Old Guard is Delta Lambda's alumni Annual Fund. Your contribution helps the Chapter maintain its competitive standing at the top of Florida State's fraternity system.

October saw a generous, and immediate, outpouring of support. The September newsletter was published at 9:29 PM on September 21. Manny Zamora's gift to the old Guard was received at exactly 10:24 PM.

Manny Zamora '87, Mike Lilly '84 and Chip Hartung '71 each sent their annual gift. Doug Tatum '77 paid two years ahead. Jim Montano '64 and Howard Hunter '73 each paid three years ahead! Thank you all!

Joining the Old Guard is easy. Contribution is only $100 per year. Your gift goes toward strengthening the Bonds among alumni, and enriching both the alumni and undergraduate Delta Lambda experience. Some alumni have even chosen to give as much as $1,000.

A current list of the Old Guard Members appears at the end of this newsletter.

Delta Lambda's Historic Home is Now 'Sembler House'

Seated: Teri Marks, Suzanne Roix, Kelly Lindo, Joey Keen, Jimmy Keen '73, Brent Sembler '78, Debbie Sembler, Gayle Walker, Olga Feheley.

Standing: Carlos Lindo '05, Scott Roix '85, Charlie Barnes '65, Michael Fernandez '10, Ken Marks '80, Mickey Fernandez '77, Eli Nortelus '01, Chapter Advisor John Peacock '01, Steve Walker '81, Delta Lambda Alumni Association President Eric Carr '01, Joe Feheley '81, Jeff Moore '81.

On September 20, 2003, hundreds of Delta Lambda alumni assembled to witness the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Pike House. It was announced that the event marked, "not the beginning of a new course, but the strengthening and validation of a glorious heritage."

On the evening of October 21st 2021, former members of the Legends of Delta Lambda Building Committee and past Regional Chairmen of the Legends Capital Campaign gathered in the O. Ken Marks Foyer to greet Brent and Debbie Sembler with a surprise. After months of preparation, dozens of alumni and undergraduates celebrated the christening of the nation's largest fraternity facility as 'Sembler House'.

Two years prior to the 2003 groundbreaking, Brent W. Sembler '78 accepted the challenge of Chairing what was at that time the largest professionally-run fraternity alumni fundraising campaign in the history of the deep south.

Brent and Debbie completely surprised as Jimmy and Joey walk him through the door

The challenge was especially daunting, given that Delta Lambda had only recently returned to FSU after a decade-long absence. One example of the difficulty Brent and his team faced raising funds for the $4 million house was put in stark perspective during their first meeting with a major gift prospect. The alumnus being approached for a gift was seated at his desk. Behind him, on that September 11, 2001, Brent could see the live television feed of the twin towers coming down.

But despite the national chaos and uncertainty, Brent persisted. "There's no doubt that the bar was set very high," he said. "But Delta Lambda has a history of overcoming adversity and setting the standard for others to follow. I was fortunate to be surrounded by exceptional leaders – friends and Brothers all – who not only wrote the checks, but made the calls that inspired other men to do the same."

Ron Reitdorf, President of the Campaign Consultant company, told of his experience dealing with various Delta Lambda alumni during the preliminary "feasibility study". "I must say, I've never seen a group of men like this in my life," he laughed. "I can certainly see why you guys were always the best on campus. This was the most belligerent bunch I've ever dealt with. We'd visit guys in their office, and nearly everyone of them said, 'I'm in as long as it's the biggest, most impressive house on campus; if it's not, then count me out!'"

He said, "The fact that Brent Sembler and his team did all this immediately after having been off campus for ten years is more than amazing." The new Pike house was formally dedicated in the fall of 2005.

Jimmy Keen made the formal presentation to the assembled alumni and undergraduates, unveiling Brent's portrait and announcing that Delta Lambda's historic home will always be known as Sembler House. Brent and Debbie enjoyed the ceremony, and dinner with alumni at University Center following the presentation.

Past Chapter Advisor, and long-time Chairman of Oversight and House Management, Jimmy Keen '73 contacted former members of the Building Committee as well as Brent's capital campaign Area Fundraising Captains to discuss an appropriate recognition of Brent Sembler's leadership as Chairman of the Legends of Delta Lambda for these past 20 years.

Everyone Jimmy contacted was eager to help. It was determined that the entire facility moving forward will be named 'Sembler House'. A beautifully framed painting of Brent is now permanently displayed in the foyer.

Brent was able to take time for personal remarks to some of the Chapter's newest initiates.

As landlord, Brent has overseen many upgrades and renovations, as well as the purchase of an expensive new roof in 2018. Extensive water damage several years ago required major repairs to the facilities, equipment and personal effects of Brothers.

The financial burden has, of course, fallen on Legends of Delta Lambda, Inc. - the entity that owns the house. But many times, over the decades, Brent has borne those burdens by himself. He will not divulge how much of his own personal wealth has been invested into the Pike House.

It is fair to say that no other FSU fraternity has anyone in their alumni ranks as willing and as capable of supporting their fraternal home than Brent Sembler.

For decades, these ongoing challenges of dealing with a 40,000 square foot fraternity house and the 7,000 square foot courtyard, has fallen on the capable shoulders of Jimmy Keen and his contractor Peter Ford '18.

Andy Miller '70 was out-of-state and could not attend, but he sent this message: "Brent, you're a great friend and you have my utmost appreciation for providing the leadership and commitment necessary for Delta Lambda to remain excellent. You were the right man at the right time at a pivotal moment, accepting the challenge without reservation, and you continue to be an anchor to the wind for our Brotherhood."

Keen organized the formal celebration, which took place on Thursday, October 21st. Brent was unaware of the surprise until Jimmy walked him into the foyer Thursday evening.

As he closed his remarks, Brent saluted Jimmy Keen. "Jimmy lives and breathes the Pike House. No one is more committed to the house, and to the Fraternity than Jimmy."

Delta Lambda Pledges 65 in Fall Rush, 2021

Many of our 65 fall pledges are pictured above, along with Rush Chairman James Bencivenga '20. Following initiation, they will become a large part of the next iteration of Delta Lambda. All the new pledges went through a rigorous selection process overseen by the Rush Chairman and his Rush Captains, along with counsel from general Chapter Brothers.

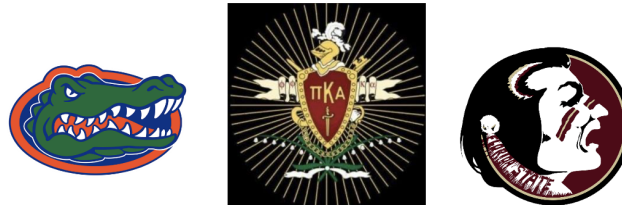

This new class is filled with ambitious young men who want to continue Delta Lambda's remarkable record of leadership on campus, on the athletic fields and in the classroom. The class contains approximately 10 father-son (or grandfather-grandson) legacies. The 'Legacy Dads' are from a variety of Pike chapters.

After 18 months of Covid and ZOOM rush, the process opened back up again this fall with in-person rush. Interest in pledging fraternities was very strong. More than 1,000 men signed up and paid a fee to IFC for the opportunity to go through rush. Of those, 683 elected to accept bids, giving our IFC fraternities an average of 49 pledges per class.

Florida State has only 14 IFC fraternities now. Many of our traditional rivals are still absent from campus (Phi Delt, Delta Tau Delta, Lambda Chi, ATO, Chi Phi, Phi Kappa Tau, Phi Sig, Sigma Nu), but we hope they will be allowed to return in time.

Delta Lambda's class of 65 was not the largest. Kappa Sigma signed 91 new pledges. Our numbers are in line with those against whom we generally compete. Theta Chi took 59; Sig Ep took 52; KA took 46 and SAE took 57. Our new Sigma Chi colony signed 58. Everyone did well.

An Invitation from University of Florida Pikes to Join Them on November 27th
Many of you know Ernie Cox '89 (Alpha Eta, UF), one of the leaders of UF Pike alumni, and a long-time friend of Delta Lambda. Ernie and his fellow Gator Pikes invite all Delta Lambda Pikes to join AH for a pre-game tailgate, at the Pike house, on November 27th. The Pike house is located at 1900 West University Avenue.

Ernie says the UF Pike house has open areas in front of the house, and in the back. "It's our practice for adult alumni to gather in the front, facing University Avenue, across from the stadium. We play our music and enjoy the comraderie. The undergraduates gather in the courtyard behind the house. They play their own music and everyone has a good time."

A note to Delta Lambda Brothers: University of Florida authorities employ the same restrictive attitudes toward drinking that we're used to at Florida State. So, please, respect Alpha Eta's hospitality, and do not put them at risk.

Mat Nelson '20
Buster Posey Catcher of the Year 2021

Daniel Berger '12
Ryder Cup Champion 2021

Mat Nelson '20, the Seminoles' starting catcher and ACC Baseball Player of the Year, signed a $2,095,800 MLB contract with the Cincinnati Reds last month.

In July, Mat was named winner of the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award. Mat also won the Johnny Bench Award, was a finalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and semi-finalist for the Golden Spikes Award.

Delta Lambda Brother Mike Fuentes '78 won the Golden Spikes Award in 1981. He donated the trophy to Delta Lambda; it is now on display in the foyer.

Golfing great Daniel Berger '12 continues his spectacular career on the PGA Tour. In September, he and fellow Seminole Brooks Koepka were tapped to represent Team USA in the Ryder Cup. The Americans won, and Berger was honored by being the first selection as a captain's pick by former champion Steve Strickner.

Dan Akre '83 posted, "Berger dresses like a Pike."

Steve Roden '71
 CEO, Guy Harvey Enterprises
 Chairman, Guy Harvey Ocean Foundation

Jimmy and Lisa Graganella '14
 2022 Chairman, Seminole Boosters, Inc.

Steve Roden '71 is fast becoming an icon in the global movement aimed at saving marine habitats and the oceans of the world. A pioneer in the field of virtual learning, Steve founded LearnSomething in 2004 and ran it for 13 years before selling his firm to Xerox.

He "un-retired" to form a partnership with conservationist and artist Dr. Guy Harvey. Steve is using his skills to "build out a formal marine science curriculum for middle and high school student in Florida...Environment education instruction in Florida doesn't cover our marine environment now."

Steve's brother Scott Roden '77 is also a Delta Lambda alum.

Jimmy Graganella '14 played wide receiver for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden in the early 1980s. He owns a series of popular Tallahassee restaurants, including Mom & Dads and The Blu Halo. An entrepreneur with extensive real estate holdings, Jimmy also owns Killearn Golf & Country Club. He was elected to serve as Chairman of the Board of Seminole Boosters in 2021-2022.

Jimmy's son Nick Graganella '12 is also a Delta Lambda. Nick played four seasons for the Seminoles as a left-fielder and pinch runner starting in 2013.

Old Guard contributor Manny Zamora '87 sent this letter to Delta Lambda:
 "I have been meaning to contribute to The Old Guard for quite some time & yesterday was finally the day. Your newsletter did the trick.

"Now that I have a niece & nephew, each a month into their undergraduate years at FSU, I have been thinking back on how formative those years were for me. Although I didn't get the full Delta Lamba experience [due to loss of the Chapter in 1988], I am forever grateful for the "half" experience I did receive. The caliber of men I was privileged to be a part of was unmatched & it brings me great pride & joy to see that tradition continue w/ today's Delta Lambda. And of course, the stories, the many stories that put a big smile on my face & heart to this day.

"Finally, I'll mention that I learned today that my nephew, whom I wrote to you about earlier this month, accepted a bid from [another fraternity]. I was rather disappointed that he didn't respond to your emails acknowledging my recommendation & I doubt he engaged much with Rush Chairman James Bencivenga & his team. His Mom tells me he's happy w/ his choice, but I can't help but think of what he's missing out on. The old adage of leading a horse to water comes to mind...

"Please be sure to let me know if you're ever out here in San Diego. Know that you have a Brother you can always count on."

On the Road with Glenn Grant '82

Follow his whereabouts on Facebook at www.facebook.com/milo.grant.90

Tim Sheridan '79 wrote: When we assemble all the great pictures from Glenn and Milo, and the reunions of great friends across these United States, I can't help but think of the Eagle's Lyrics to "Take it to the Limit". ... So put me on a highway, And show me a sign, And take it to the limit one more time"...

We really want to thank the Brothers who have taken that extra effort to reunite with friends, and track down long lost Brothers. Prior to social media, we didn't have a way to reconnect with Men who were our best friends in College. We lost track of friends after Graduation. Today we are offered such great opportunities to reconnect. I'm sure some don't want to be found for their own reasons, but we can keep trying to reunite.

Glenn has continued his adventures on the Road with his faithful friend Milo, and has had the chance to reunite with Chris Chain '83, Carlton Cozart '81, Wayne Curtiss '83, Clarke Morris '83, Jeff Waldrop '83 and Mark Provo '82. Here are a few of his recent pictures he shared...
