Please forward this copy of your Delta Lambda Newsletter to your Pike friends and encourage them to sign up to receive the monthly letter. It's free.

Here is the <https://www.fsupikes.com>

Join the Old Guard of Delta Lambda!

We're very grateful to the Brothers who joined or renewed their Old Guard commitments since our last monthly newsletter was published in May. They include Lewis Fusco '05, David Giordano '65, and Mike Lait '78. Alumnus Ryan McElveen '95 has made a substantial commitment to Delta Lambda and The Old Guard through the Sembler Society. More about that with a feature in the October newsletter.

Joining the Old Guard is easy. Contribution is only $100 per year. Your gift goes toward strengthening the Bonds among alumni, and enriching both the alumni and undergraduate Delta Lambda experience. Some alumni have even chosen to give as much as $1,000. A current list of the Old Guard Members appears at the end of this newsletter.

Click here to join the Old Guard now!

Our next Alumni Advisors/Undergraduate Leadership Luncheon is scheduled for Wednesday, OCTOBER 7TH at the University Center Club. Please come and enjoy the fellowship, and hear all about the great new pledge class. Rush Chairman Luke Vari '18 and his Captains did an incredible job under dreadful circumstances. No other fraternity could even come close.

Delta Lambda Wins the Smythe in 2020!

Our Pike National Convention in Las Vegas was cancelled due to the current viral unpleasantness. But the National Office staged a series of virtual award announcements from August 3rd through August 7th.

Our Chapter was recognized many times over the course of the week.

Delta Lambda was one of 90 Pike Chapters posting an overall 3.0 GPA;

Delta Lambda was among only 30 Chapters to have fulfilled the “25 Man Commitment” by having at least 25 men attend Pike University;

Delta Lambda was one of only 47 Pike Chapters with a membership of more than 100 men. In fact, Delta Lambda was the second largest Pike Chapter in America in 2020;

Delta Lambda was named one of the Raymond Orians Chapter Excellence winners;

Thanks to the inspiring leadership of our Chapter Advisors John Peacock '01 and Scottie Howell '06, Delta Lambda as one of only 10 Pike Chapters nationwide to be named Chapter Advisory Board of the Year.

On Friday night, Delta Lambda was announced as winner of the Robert Adger Smythe Award for 2019-2020. National cited these particulars: In 2019-2020 Delta Lambda, the largest fraternity at Florida State for 20 consecutive years, had a membership of 260 men. The Chapter finished the year #1 in Athletics and posted a chapter-wide Grade point Average of 3.25. They raised $66,450 for philanthropy this year, and the ThC reported close to 100% in bill collections for the year.

Immediate past SMC Wyatt Rancourt '16, current SMC Jacob Middleton '18 and all their executive officers deserve high praise. As one alum commented, “Hard fought, and fairly won.”

Before that, Delta Lambda had been a top chapter at FSU for more than a decade, but had never won the Smythe. Ed Barnes speculated, "Winning was due largely I think to Don Kyle '77 getting our finances right with National, and Tim Sheridan '79 actually filling out and submitting the application."

After 1980, Delta Lambda won again in 1981 and 1982, and again in 1986. After re-Chartering in 2001, Delta Lambda won 13 consecutive Smythe Awards from 2002 through 2014. After missing one in 2015 due to internal troubles, Delta Lambda won Smythes again in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Regarding our latest 2020 Smythe Award, 'The Godfather' Brent Sembler '78 wrote, "Brothers, it was with great pride that I read this press release from Pike National today! Really proud of your winning the 2020 Smythe Award! With the obstacles you had last year, it's nothing short of a miracle! I hold your leadership group and its accomplishments in highest esteem. In the Bonds, Brent"

Former Chapter Advisor Jimmy Keen '73 agreed with Brent, saying, "Congratulations! Currently we have fantastic leadership. They have already made a contribution to improve the Pike house. In collaboration with Jacob, the chapter purchased 2 very expensive basketball goals, permanently installed in the courtyard. Phi Phi, Jimmy."

David Rancourt's Extraordinary, Generous Gift ...

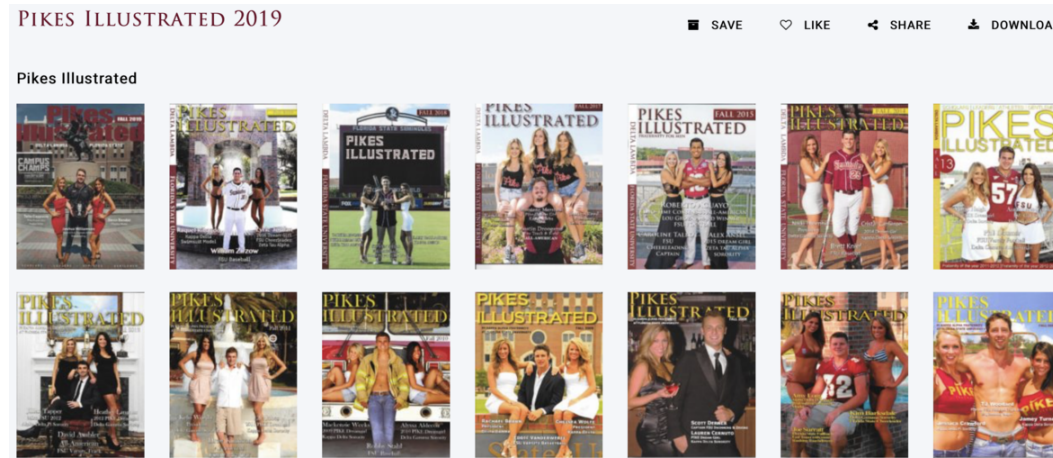

David Rancourt's Extraordinary, Generous Gift to Delta Lambda

David Rancourt '84 envisions establishing a massive, comprehensive, ongoing alumni organization to protect Delta Lambda and ensure its strength for all time. It is an expensive and long-term undertaking, and David continually demonstrates his commitment to completing that dream.

David played football for Coach Bobby Bowden '49 as a freshman in 1984. He subsequently served as Delta Lambda's SMC in 1986. His son Wyatt Rancourt '16 served as SMC in 2018.

As Phase One of his colossal alumni initiative, David has personally funded the digital reproduction of all 35 issues of Pikeboy / Pikes Illustrated! All are available free to you for viewing. Pikeboy began in the 1971-72 school year and continued annually through 1987. An edition was prepared in 1988, but we lost the chapter before it could be published. Pikes Illustrated was the next iteration, paralleling the re-colonization Delta Lambda colony in 2000.

Every page and every issue are now available, free, for your entertainment and nostalgia. This is the photographic record of America's greatest college fraternity chapter! Thank you, David Rancourt!

Delta Lambda's Legacy of Leadership: Tyler Russell '10

It seems that Pikes are never too far from the Office of Florida's Governor in Tallahassee. Tyler Russell '10 was able to carve an hour out of his busy schedule to join several Delta Lambda alumni for lunch at the Governor's Club in August, just a few hundred yards from his office in the Capitol.

Tyler serves on Governor Ron DeSantis' leadership team as Deputy Director of Legislative Affairs. After graduation from FSU he interned in Washington with Congressman Pete Sessions '75 (Southwestern University) who was Chairman of the Rules Committee as well as the Congressional Republican caucus. Then in 2014 Tyler began working for the Republican Party of Florida, after which he joined the campaign team of United States Congressman Neal Dunn in 2015. Tyler was the first one hired, and stayed with the campaign for more than a year.

Chapter Advisor John Peacock '01 describes Tyler as "a sort of bridge between the 'early' Pikes comprising the colony which built the top fraternity from scratch, and the 'later' Pikes who took the new house and turned it into a fortress of excellence." Commenting on the 'New Normal' for fraternities, enforced by FSU, Tyler said, "The landscape has changed drastically. My pledge class had a real pledge program; sober driver, and a seven-day hell week. The Pledge process has a place. My pledge class, Chi, remains tight. But you can't follow the old traditions anymore. The fraternities that did are gone now."

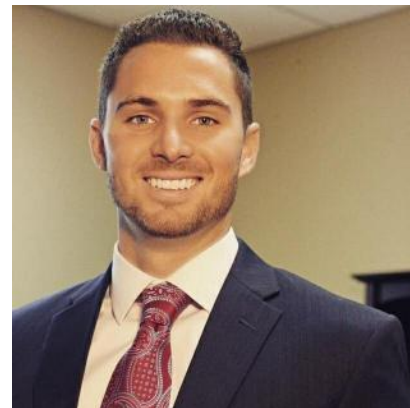

Tyler was extremely active on campus, serving in the Cabinet of Student Body President Avi Assidon '09.

He was heavily involved in both Pike and IFC Rush, of course, and was elected Delta Lambda Vice President. He even held an appointed position with Pike Nationals for a year in 2013 as the Executive Director of Undergraduate Educational Initiatives. Tyler is a member of The Old Guard.

Tyler lived in London his last semester at FSU. Newly married to Katy Russell, he is serious minded and focused. "College has a hard stop. You have to develop an 'after' plan and think beyond four years. College will either catapult you ahead, or hold you back. It's about decisions and lifestyle."

How did his Delta Lambda Pike experience help Tyler? "I'm comfortable managing people, and confident in my abilities. Delta Lambda Pike does that." He laughs, "And having a Delta Lambda background, I'm certainly able to identify and deal with the huge egos within the Capitol."

Tyler is the son of Legacy Dads Chairman Doug Russell '79, a prominent Tallahassee lobbyist.

Delta Lambda Alumni Focus: Attorney Lewis Fusco '05

Founder and CEO of the prominent, Jacksonville-based Fusco Law Group, Lewis Fusco '05 is a loyal Delta Lambda and member of the Old Guard. While his firm is comprehensive, covering everything from family law to personal injury, Lewis himself practiced criminal defense his first five years out of law school. Later he became very involved in music law, representing a range of musicians, primarily RAP artists, some of whom are big names in that arena.

When we interviewed him, we noted the seeming unusual juxtaposition of criminal law and entertainment law, especially Rap artists. Lewis chuckled, "Well, it is true that on occasion those two areas of my practice do intersect..."

Business is thriving, and Lewis just purchased a new building of executive suites for the Firm. The property in downtown Jacksonville, just a block from the Duval County Courthouse, is valued at more than $1 million.

Lewis was in the first pledge class the semester the house opened. He spoke of how awe-struck he was walking into the new mansion for the first time. "I lived in the house the whole time," he said. "I had a great time in college as a Pike – probably had too much fun in fact. Law School was an eye-opener and I had to really bear down."

His best memories of life in the Pike house revolved around his friends, "and the infamous courtyard." He mentioned being close to many Brothers including past SMCs Carlos Lindo '05 and Cade Carter '05, Sean Compton '03, Mark Moore '05, Tom Pitts '07, Derek Maines '05 (who also works at his law firm part time) as well as former NFL stalwarts Nick Moody '10 (Washington) and Kyle Long '08 (Bears). At least 10 Pikes attended his bachelor party, and two Pike Brothers were groomsmen in his wedding (Chris McDowell '05 and Drew Lowery '05). He says he also recently attended Tyler Fugitt's '06 bachelor party "with many of my Pike brothers".

Among the special memories he recalls was the time Cade Carter '05 and Grant Goodwiller '05 "took the whole pledge class on a trip. It was a blast to say the least." "That same year, after returning from a late-night date function and after consuming far too many beers, Grant Goodwiller, Cade Carter, and myself thought it would be a great idea to visit brother Tom Pitts in Puerto Rico where he was attending Med School. Somehow, we successfully booked plane tickets at 4am and immediately left for the airport. These are memories I will never forget!" No further information on that particular the trip to Puerto Rico was forthcoming...

NEWS AND COMMENTS

At FSU, Interest in fraternities remains strong. According to the University's statistics last spring, these are the largest chapters at FSU: Pike (218), Sig Ep (193), Theta Chi (180), KA (165), Sigma Pi (128), Fiji (126), Kappa Sig (125), Beta Theta Pi and Delta Chi (116) and SAE (115). Sigma Pi is in the old Lambda Chi house and Delta Chi in the old Phi Delt House. There is a handful of other fraternities with memberships under 100. Fraternities no longer at FSU, having been kicked off for now, include ATO, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Chi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Tau, Phi Sigma Kappa, Chi Phi, Sigma Nu, Pi Kappa Phi and Delta Tau Delta. Lambda Chi Alpha is applying for reinstatement soon, and all Pikes will stand in support of their chapter and alumni.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity at FSU completed building a new 19,500 square foot fraternity house with 28 bedrooms at 748 W. Lafayette Street. The contractor is Mad Dog Construction and according to Growth Management, the value of the building is $3,200,000. Editor's note: The square footage of the new Sig Ep house is almost exactly the same as our old Pike house on Wildwood. In 1966, the construction cost of our Pike house was around $350,000. The current Pike house comprises more than 40,000 square feet, plus the 7,000 square foot enclosed courtyard. Ours is the nation's largest fraternity house under one roof.

Clydes & Costellos has gone out of business after 34 years, a casualty of the Covid. As the State scrambled to combat the COVID-19 pandemic, owner Dave Ericks soon realized his businesses would likely become a victim. "I've been out for four months and I've been paying $20,000 monthly into my mortgage and Comcast and computers and everything else," Ericks, a veteran state lobbyist said. "I can't tell you over my 34 years how many people met their wives or their spouses," he recounted. "My daughter met her husband here."

Plenty of Pike alumni weighed in on hearing the sad news of Clydes & Costellos' demise:

Wade Wilcox "I enjoyed serving my Brothers and Big/Little Sisters on those Thursday nights."

Ernie Reiter "Damn. Way too many memories in this place from FSU days. Enjoyed my 4-4-1s with my Pike brothers, danced to '80 music even though my dancing skills are suspect. Hearing Frank Sinatra sing 'New York, New York' at 1:15 AM and the DJ turning on the lights telling everyone it's time to go. Hell of a run."

Alex Salabarría "Wow. Great memories there. I got in a lot of trouble there. Well hooking up is not trouble at that time of my life..."

Rick Spennato "4-4-1 Phi Phi my Brother!"

Ivan Parron "Wow, great memories there on Thursday nights in Fall 1987! #PhiPhi"

BG Murphy "No doubt this is a sad time in Tallahassee. Enjoyed it in college and have continued to enjoy it from time to time."

Mike Halfacre "So many mornings when I had to go back to get my credit card."

Tony Yeomans "Where is this place y'all speak ..."

Rich Lord "Tony Yeomans, it was a mythical place where you could drink a whole bunch and the cops would not pull you over."

Tony Yeomans "Rich Lord, I bounced there as u remember my Pike Brothers got in front of line . Got 10 dollars for every fake ID I got."

Lenny Brantley "Rich Lord, I can still kick your ass at Nintendo hockey."

Tom Poulos '67 (son, Matt Poulos '02) is the latest of a growing number of 1960s initiates to send his biography to Bob Tunkel '66, creator and headmaster of the project. Bob has compiled more than 60 biographies and obituaries from the '60s deade. Please visit Bob's Facebook page to see all of them.

Tom writes, "I'm Tom Poulos '67 (Alias, 'Mickey Mouth'; Little Brother to Terry Miller '65). For those of you who remember the Fraternity Weekend of '69 in Panama City, you might remember I proposed to Cynthia Lynn Jenks on stage at the formal part of the weekend. Well, she accepted and we married one year later. Many of you attended the wedding. The marriage has lasted, and we celebrated 50 years on June 13, 2020. We have three children, two girls and a boy, and seven grandchildren. Our son Matt is a '02 Delta Lambda. I had the honor of participating in his initiation thanks to brother Ed Barnes '71. Both daughters rebelled and attended University of Florida."

David Rancourt '84 invites you to read the WSJ article: Vail Mountain Home Sells for $57.25 Million, Setting New Record for Colorado Town. "Ty Stockton '82 sold this", he says. Very nice. Ty's quoted in the WSJ piece. For those of you who asked, we're not able to confirm that Rancourt is the purchaser.

Hearty congratulations to former Student Body Treasurer Omar Pimentel '16. After two years of intense vetting, Florida State University has nominated Omar for a Rhodes Scholarship! No IFC Fraternity other than Pike can boast a Rhodes Scholar among its alumni. If Omar is successful, then Pike will have two, including former Student Body President Joe O'Shea '04.

Edward 'Beeper' Schuh '84

Beeper died on July 29, 2020 in Dallas, Texas.

There are two others in this photo because, well, it's almost impossible to find any picture of Beeper when he was not surrounded by his friends. So be it.

Nearly 100 comments flooded Facebook as Brothers offered expressions of mourning. Possibly the most poignant was a series of quotes by Beeper himself.

Beeper was quick to give credit back to others, so when Internationally renowned motivational speaker and best-selling author Scott Burrows '84 shared a message Beeper had written back in April, 2013. Beeper replied, "Life throws us all curve balls, but very few have the gumption and determination to stand up and hit them out of the park. Scott has always hit them out of the park..."

Beeper's own Facebook headline reads; "Faith believes in spite of the circumstances and acts in spite of the consequences. "

RIP Beeper Schuh. Chapter Eternal at age 54.
